Tour description

This beautiful mountain hike with great views of the Lünersee and the surrounding mountains leads over the "Bösen Tritt" further to the Totalp Hütte and up to the highest peak of the Rätikon, the Schesaplana.

The mountain hike leads from the Lünersee cable car valley station via the "Böse Tritt" up to the mountain station of the Lünersee cable car. The "Böse Tritt" is a bit of a challenge and partly secured with ropes - but no problem for sure-footed hikers. Alternatively, you can shorten this section with the Lünersee cable car.

From the mountain station, follow the Lünersee circular trail on the right-hand side towards Totalp Hütte. At the sign (no. 91.100) on the Lünersee circular trail, turn right uphill and always along the great rock massif in the direction of the Totalp Hut. From here, the mountain trail continues in alpine terrain up to the summit of the Schesaplana, the highest peak in the Rätikon.

The tour is rewarded with great views and a cosy stop at the Totalp hut before returning along the same path.
